

Mrs. Riddle Is Out of Hospital

Mrs. Arthur Riddle, slightly injured escaping wreckage of her home after a gas explosion Wednesday, was released today from Bartholomew county hospital. She suffered cuts and shock.

Her husband, suffering second and third degree burns over 90 per cent of his body, still was listed as critical today although he had a "fair" night.

James Walsh, Indiana Gas and Water company serviceman also burned in the blast at Riddle home, 3006 East McKinley avenue, was reported in fair condition today at the hospital. He suffered burns on his face, arms and legs.

1959-01-19 Mrs. Riddle and IGC serviceman Jim Walsh injured

Clippec

cri

Mon, Feb 1