

Two Burned in Blast Unchanged

Conditions of Arthur Riddle and James Walsh, both severely burned in a natural gas explosion at the Riddle home on East McKinley avenue last Wednesday, were reported unchanged today at Bartholomew county hospital.

Mr. Riddle, 43, was listed as "critical" after a "fair" night. Mr. Walsh, 29, 1616 Franklin street, was considered "fair" after a "fair" night. He is a serviceman for the Indiana Gas and Water company here.

1959-01-20 Columbus serviceman Jim Walsh condition unchanged

