

Riddle, Walsh Are Improved

Improvement was reported today in conditions of two Columbus men seriously burned Jan. 14 in a natural gas explosion that wrecked an east side home.

Arthur Riddle, 43, 3006 McKinley avenue, was reported in fair condition at the Bartholomew county hospital today after previously being listed as "critical" and "serious".

James Walsh, 29, 1616 Franklin street, was reported as fair after a "good" night. Walsh, an Indiana Gas and Water company serviceman, was attempting to relight a pilot flame on the gas furnace at the Riddle home when the blast occurred.
