

Mr. Romine Retires at Indiana Gas

Harry C. Romine of 525 First street was honored this week at a dinner as he retired with 23 years service from Indiana Gas company. His retirement is effective next Friday.

Mr. Romine, a fitter with the utility, is a native of Zanesville, Ohio, but has been associated with the Columbus district throughout his years.

Harry Romine

Prior to joining the gas company in 1945, Mr. Romine spent 16 years in the U.S. Army.

Attending the banquet for Mr. Romine at the Holiday Inn restaurant here were all local employes and their wives as well as division personnel and their wives.

A smorgasbord type dinner was laid and a short program honored Mr. Romine and his wife. Gifts were presented by Frank Coyle, division manager, and from employes.

1968-05-25 Harry Romine retirees

Clipped By:

jimdwest

Fri, Mar 3, 2017