

JULIAN PIERCEFIELD

Utility Promotes Former Resident

INDIANAPOLIS — Julian G. Piercefield, a former Columbus resident, and S. Robert Koven have been appointed assistant corporate secretaries of Indiana Gas company, effective Nov. 1, J. W. Heiney, president, said today.

Mr. Piercefield joined the company in 1947 in Columbus where he was born and raised. He served in various engineering capacities until transferred to the right-of-way department in the company's Indianapolis headquarters office in September, 1960. In 1962 he was named manager of the land department. In addition to his new duties, he will remain in charge of that department.

He is a national director of the American Right-of-Way association and is one of 20 utility members of the Indiana chapter of the American Right-of-Way association.

Mr. Koven started with Indiana Gas company in 1968 as an auditor working out of the Indianapolis office.

WHI

$12.

Pick from them with economical

SCHNEIDER

Seymour, Indiana, 5 m

1970-10-21 Julian Piercefield promoted to Indy

Clipped By:

jimdwest

Fri, Mar 3, 2017