

INDIANA GAS HONORS LOCAL EMPLOYEES

Indiana Gas company recently honored employees in the Columbus division who have had 25 or more years of service with the company at a dinner at Holiday Inn in Seymour.

Present from the Columbus district were James D. Graham, Robert Stemm and Archie Wilbur, all active employees, and William O'Laughlin and Frank Coyle, retired. David Sullivan, an active employee, was unable to attend. Mr. Graham received new emblem indicating he has been employed with the company 35 years.

1971-09-25 IGC gives out service pins

Clipped By:

jimdwest

Fri, Mar 3, 2017