

Indiana Gas Company Makes Changes Here

Robert M. Hutchison has been named commercial manager of Indiana Gas Company's Columbus district, which now includes Seymour, according to F. J. Spoonmore, division manager. The appointment became effective recently.

The Seymour commercial office, which previously had been operated separately, was included in the Columbus district beginning with this appointment. Accordingly, Hutchison's duties include the additional responsibility of supervising the local office. The service and distribution functions at Seymour have been operated as a part of the Columbus district for some time. "This consolidation has been accomplished in the interest of efficiency and economy," Spoonmore stated.

Hutchison replaces Arthur M. Shuler, who had been commercial manager of the Columbus district from 1965 until he passed away on June 16, and James M. Christian, who had been commercial manager at

Robert M. Hutchison

Seymour until being promoted to commercial manager of the larger Bloomington district on August 29. Christian began his career with the company in 1958 as an accounting clerk in Columbus. In 1964 he was transferred to Franklin where he served as chief clerk until moved to Seymour in 1965.

James M. Christian

Christian was born in Columbus, Ind., graduated from Columbus High School, served in the U.S. Army from 1955 to 1957 and attended Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis. He is a past member of the board of directors of the Seymour Chamber of Commerce, the Jackson County Chapter of the American Cancer Society and the Jackson County Mental Health Association.

Christian and his wife, Jean, will be moving to Bloomington. Their four children, James, Roger, Steven, and Brenda Isaacs, will continue to reside in Seymour.

d Portions.

ste.

Later find portions.

ps are totally different- they're crunchy.

1977_10_05_IGC makes personnel changes at Seymour - Hutchinison and Christian

Clipped By:

jimdwest

Sun, Aug 14, 2016